[From the Louisville Sunday Journal.] Bill Arp Addresses Artemns Ward.

Rose, Ga. Sept. 1, 1865. MR ARTEMUS WARD, Showman-Sar: The reesun I write to you in pertikler are bekaus you are about the only man I know in all "God's reesun I write to you in pertikler are bekaus you are about the only man I know in all "God's country" so called. For sum several weeks I hav been wantin tu say sumthin. For sum several weeks I the College, and Cinical Lectures at the College Dispensary and Hospitals, will commence on the 18th of October, and continue until the opening of said county deceased, have been tryin mity hard to do sumthin. We didn't quite do it, and now Tickets to the course, sudden and make out like we wasn't thar.

My frend, I want to say sumthin. I suppose there is no law agin thinkin, but thinkin dont help me. It dont let down my thermometer. I must explode myself generally so as to feel bet ter. You seel'm tryin to harmonize. I'm tryin to soften down my feelins. I'm endeavoring to subjugate myself to the level of surroundin circumstances, so called. But I can't do it until I Professor of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women and am allowed to say sumthin. I want to quarrel with somebody, and then make friends. I aint no glant killer. I aint no Norwegian bar. I aint no boar-constrickter, but I'll be hornswaggled if the talkin and the writin and the slanderin has all get to be done on one side any longer. Sum of your folks have got to dry up or turn our folks loose. It's a blamed outrage, so called. Asint your editors got nuthin else to do but to peck at us, and squib at us, and crow over us? Is every man what kan write a paragraf to consider us as bars in a cage, and be always a jobbin at us to hear us growl? Now you see, my frend, that's what's disharmonious, and do you jest tell em, one and all, e pluribus unum, so-called, that if they don't stop it at once Address or turn us loose to say what we please, why we rebs. so-called, have unanimously and jointly and severally resolved to-to-to-think very hard of it-if not harder. Thats the way to talk it. I aint agwine to commit myself. I know when to put on the brakes. I sint agwine to say all I think, like Mr. Etheridge, or Mr. Adderrig, so-called Nary time. No, sir. But I'll just tell you, Artemus, BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS and you may tell it to your show: If we aint Are warranted in all cases for the speedy and PERMANallowed to express our sentiments, we can take ant Come from all diseases arising from sexual excesses it out in hatin; and hatin runs heavy in my o family, shure. I hated a man so bad once that all the hair cum off my head, and the man drowned himself in a hog waller that night. I kould do it agin, but you see I'm trvin to harmonize, to acquiesce, to becum kalm and

But talkin the way I see it, a big feller and a little feller, so called, got into a fite, and they fout and fout and fout a long time, and everybody all round kep hollerin hands off, but kep helpin the big feller, untill finally the little teller caved in and hollered enuf. He make a bully fite I tell you, Selah. Well, what did the More Valuable Than Cold! big feller do? take him by the hand and help him up, and brush the dirt off his clothes? Nary time! No, sur! But he kicked him arter he was down, and throwd mud on him, and drug him about and rubbed sand in his eyes, and now he's gwine about huntin up his poor little Wants to confiskate it, so called. Blame my jacket if it aint enuf to make your head swim.

But I'm a good Union man-so called. aint agwine to fite no more. I shan't vote for the next war. I aint no gurrilla. I've done tuk the oath, and I'm gwine to keep it, but as for my bein subjugated, and humilyated, and amalgamated, and enervated, as Mr. Chase says, it aint so-nery time. I aint ashamed of nuthin neither-aint repentin, aint axin for no one-horse, short-winded pardon. Nobody needn't be playin priest around me. I aint got no twenty thousand dollars. Wish I had; I'd give it to these poor widers and orfins. I'd fatten my own nu If you require a reliable remedy to restore you, use merous and interestin offspring in about two minits and a half. There is Bull Run Arp, Harper's Ferry pikters in a spellin book. I tell you, my frend, we are the poorest people on the face of the paid, secure from observation, on receipt of One Dollar, earth-but we are poor and proud. We made a bully fite, Selah! and the whole Amerikin pation ought to feel proud of it. It shows what Amerikins can do when they think they are imposed polis. on-"so-called" Didn't our four fathers fite, bleed, and die about a little tax on tea, when not one in a thousand drunk it? Bekaus they sukseeded wusent it glory? But if they hadent I suppose it would have been treason, and they would have been bowin and scrapin round King 1865. George for pardon. So it goes, Aretumus, and to my mind, if the whole thing was stewed down, it would make about a half pint of humbug We had good men, great men, Christian men, who thought we was right, and many of 'em have gone to the undiskovered country, and have got a pardon as is a pardon. When I die. I'm mity willin to risk myself under the shadow of their wings, whether the climate be hot or cold. So mote it be. Selah! Well, maybe I've said enuf. But I don't fee easy yit. I'm a good Union man, sertin and shure. I've had my breeches died blue, and I've got a blue bucket, and I very often feel blue, and about twice in a while I go to the doggery and git blue, and then I look up at the blue serulean heavens and sing the melankolly chorvus of the Blue-tailed Fly. I'm doing my durndest to harmonize, and think I could sucseed if it wasent for sum things. When I see a black-guard goin around the streets with a gun on his shoulthe whole Yanky nation. Jerusalem, how my blood biles. The institution what was handed down to us by the heavenly kingdom of Massachusetts now put over us with powder and ball ! Harmonize the devil! Ain't we human beings? Sumbody has drawd the elefant in the lottery, and don't know what to do with him. He's jest throwin his snout about loose, and by and by he'll hurt sumebody. These niggers will have to go back to the plantations and work. I ain't agoin to support pary one of 'em, and when you hear anybody say so, you tell em' "its a lie, " so-called. I golly, I ain't get nuthin to support myself on. We feut ourselves out of everything exceptin children and land, and I suppose the land are to be turned over to the niggers for grave vards. Well, my frend, I don't want much. I ain't ambitious, as I used to was. You all have got your shows and monkeys and sirkusses and brass bands and orgins, and can play on the petrolyum and the harp of a thousand strings, and so on; but I've only got one favor to ax of you. I want enuf powder to kill a big valler stump-tail dog that prowls round my premises at night Pon honor, I won't shoot at anything blue or black or mulatter. Will you send it? Are you and your foaks so skeered of me and my foaks, that you wont let us have any amynishun? Are the squirrels and crows and black rakoons to eat up our poor little corn patches? Are the wild tur keys to gobble all around us with impunity? If a mad dog takes the hiderfoby is the whole com- First Door East of Palmer House munity to run itself to death to get out of the way? I golly! It looks like your pepul had all tuk the rebelfoby for good, and was never gwine to git over it. See here, my frend, you must send me a little powder and a ticket to your show, and me and you will harmonize sertin.

With these few remarks I think I feel better, and hope I haint made nobody fitin mad, for I'm not on that line at this time. I am trooly your friend-all present or accounted for.
